Rev May 7, 2016

The Wellington Garden Club has been an active part of Wellington and surrounding communities since 1982. We are proud of our years of service to the Florida Federation of Garden Clubs (FFGC) and the local communities and look forward to serving them for many years to come.

The Club's list of projects is numerous and includes: landscape projects at Wellington and PBC High Schools; and at the Wellington Environmental Preserve, as well as design, planting and maintenance of the old Wellington Community Center and donations to the Wellington Library of garden books and/or videos.

Ongoing projects are:

Habitat for Humanity Landscaping

Wellington Area Landscaping Projects

Academic Scholarships for Horticulture and Environmental Students

Scholarships for FFGC Youth Camp and SEEK Environmental Conference

Youth Garden Clubs/Youth Contests

Adopt-A-Street Program

Wellington Community Outreach Events
