

Community Garden at the Boys & Girls Club of Wellington Photos

Young Professionals of Wellington, children and WGC team volunteers working getting the garden ready for the new planting season.

Young Professionals of Wellington and WGC volunteers getting the beds ready for new planting season.

Newly divided raised garden beds to make the beds more manageable.

Growing Season in the Garden

The WGC Team-Lisa, Sandy, Jim and John and Garden Club Kids after harvest.

Caterpillars eating our freshly planted dill.

Team member Jim Thompson shows the kids how to weed and plant.

Everyone hard at work weeding, planting and harvesting with the WGC team volunteers and kids.

John Siena, Chairman and Kaleb Bell of the Young Professionals of Wellington build a new shed for the community garden at the Boys and Girls Club of Wellington.

Team member, Sandy Sklar working with the garden club kids.