Speaker: Olivia Collins, CLEO Institute

Topic: The Climate Crisis, a Race We Can Win.

Olivia Collins is the Senior Director of Programs at the CLEO (Climate Leadership Engagement Opportunities) Institute. Born and raised in rural Canada, Olivia has lived in many places, before settling in Miami in 2017. She has over 15 years of experience in the environmental field, from natural building to corporate social responsibility to grassroots community development. As Senior Director of Programs, she helps oversee and execute most of CLEO's outreach programs and collaborations and provides climate trainings in the community .

The CLEO Institute is a 501(c)(3) non-profit, non-partisan organization exclusively dedicated to climate crisis education and advocacy. Founded in 2010, they work with communities across Florida to build climate literacy.

CLEO is #1 nonprofit organization in the state of Florida for climate science education with a world-class Expert Advisory Council. Their Mission is to educate and empower communities to ensure a safe, just, and healthy environment for all. Their Vision is a world in which all people, governments, and organizations are informed and engaged, and taking action on climate issues. www.CleoInstitute.org
