Speaker: Kirsten Hines

Topic: Wild Florida: An Animal Odyssey

Kirsten Hines, a Coconut Grove, Florida-based writer, acclaimed nature photographer, a devoted conservationist, is a true force for environmental preservation. Armed with a master's degree in biology and a background in environmental education, she skillfully intertwines her passion for nature and history in six captivating books on Florida. Kirsten's work featured in various publications, illuminates her expertise on birds, wildlife, gardening, travel and photography, which she passionately shares through lectures and workshops.

Committed to restoring South Florida's natural areas, she particularly focuses on re-greening the urban corridor. Kirsten's dedication extends to her roles as a Conservation Associate of the Institute for Regional Conservation and a valued member of the boards of Audubon Florida and her local chapter, the Tropical Audubon Society. Her profound contributions leave a lasting impact on both nature enthusiasts and the environment.
